MEETING AT THE COMMERCIAL EXCHANGE. -An adjourned meeting of the members of the Commercial Exchange was held at the rooms of the association this morning, and was numerously attended, Wm. A. Moore, esq., President, in the chair, and George R. Hill

Mr. George R. Shinn, on behalf of the committee appointed at the meeting on Monday, submitted the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted .

Resolved, That in the death of B. H. Lambert, esq, the Commercial Exchange of Alexandria has lost a member of whom it has been truly said. "his word was always accepted as his bond -a member whose strict and unswerving integrity was never questioned in any of the numer ons transactions in which he was engaged during a long and active mercantile life.

Resolved, That though he had lived to a ripe old age, and could not, in accordance with Nature's laws, have remained with us as an active member much longer, yet in his death we have sustained a great loss, and that we shall miss him in our daily meetings and in our business relations with emotions of sincere sorrow, and shall always remember him with feelings of venera-tion and well merited respect.

Resolved, That we respectfully tender to the widew and children of the deceased our deep and heartfelt sympathy in this their time of afand heartfelt sympathy in this their time of af-diction, assuring them that we consider their less with feelings correspondent in kind if not in degree with their own, but consoled by the knowledge that when time with its soothing hand shall have assuaged their grief they will have the enviable satisfaction of realizing that menugh dead Mr. Lambert yet lives in the mem-age of all who knew him as an "honest man the of all who knew him as an "honest man, the blest work of God."

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to spread these resolutions upon the records of the Association and that a copy of tiem be sent to he widow of the deceased

In presenting the resolutions, Mr. Shinn paid a tribute to the memory of Mr. Lambert, and was followed by Mr. Lewis McKenzie, who speke of his long business connection with the deceased, extending through a period of over forty years, during twenty of which he was a partner with him in business, and he now would bear testimony to the truth of the resolations which spoke of Mr. Lambert as an honest and upright man, and closed by reciting the following lines: HUMAN LIFE.

After awhile—a busy brain Will rest from all its care and pain. After awhile-earth's rush will cease, And a wearied heart find sweet release. After a while-a vanished face, An empty seat-a vacant place. After awhile—a man forgot— A crumbled headstone—unknown spot.

On motion of Capt. P. B. Hooe, the meetagaij arned until 2 o'clock, when the assocation, in accordance with a resolution adopted esterday, met and attended in a body the funcand their late member.

Seaton to Douglass -I am responsible for all I say, in the street, house, hall or anywhere. R. L. Mitchell thought the first thing should be order, and their aim should be their rights. He was sorry to say that the colored people of this State are not enthusiastic enough.

The speaker was interrupted by Hobday. Powell, Pinn and Donglass, all clamoring for the floor at once, amid the loud knocks upon the desk of the chairman's cane, with which he was trying to restore order, and after he had partially accompashed that of jeet, he requested all present to come up and sign the party had just arrived from Rotterdam and

While the call was being signed John Seaton took the floor and made a few remarks in which he said such men as T. B. Pinn and W. F. Powell, of two-thirds white blood, must be voted down, and we are here to-night to cut them out; we do not want taai'ors and won't have them.

After all had signed the call,

T. B. Pian spoke in defence of his resolution until John Seaton orose to a point of order, viz: we have nothing to do with the State, we are working for this city and county. Ping-If we elect so many delegates they will be cut out.

Seaton-We won't pass your resolution, and won't have it anyhow. Pinn-There is no man more anxious for our rights than I am.

Seaton-You ain't aexious for anything. Pinu proceeded to speak, when Seaton told him to dry up, he would not be elected. Pion said he did not want an election at Sea-

John Seaton said let him alone, he is a blackgu and let him blackguard himself. A vote was then had on John Seaton's resolution, and it was adopted, after which a limit of five minutes was put on all speakers. Richard Miles then spoke. He said he was the first colored man elected a constable in this town, and he was the first to jerk a white man higher than a kite while he was an officer. He and John A. Seaton had gone arm in arm to Occoquan to speak, and before they left they had to draw their "six-shooters." He wanted to be free. The beast was born free as well as the monkey, ape, babboon and tiger, and he ment to fight for his rights until eternity. After much delay and confusion nominations for delegates were declared to be in order, and fifteen persons were nominated, and the follow ing were elected: John A Seaton, R L. Mitchell, M. Williams, W. Miller, R. D. Ruffin. J. B. Syphax and C. Jackson.

Richard Miles was one of the nominees, but receiving only 29 votes, he decared it was done by rascally influence, and he wanted it done

On a second ballot he received 36 votes. R. D. Beckley was also a nominee, but some one said that Beckley had said to him that he had no sympathies with the movement, and they were all a set of jack asses for working so against their best friends. Beckley's name was therefore laid on the table.

John A. Seation offered two resolutions that a committee of sixty be appointed to wait on our representatives in Congress and the President of the United States, to urge and that the accessity of a Evans, James A. Claggett and R. T. Lucas, of the report of warren to the D. Ruffin, Sheriff elect, accompany this committee. Carried.

At 11:40 the meeting adjourned amid great confusion and excitement.

FUNERALS .- The funeral of the late Mr. John Howell took place this morning from the M. E. Church South, and was attended by a large number of persons, among them being the members of Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons, and Marley Encampment and Sarepta Lodge of Odd Fellows, of which the deceased was a brother member. The services at the church were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Busey, who paid a beautiful and impressive tribute, to the memory of the deceased. At the cometery of that church, after the burial service by Rev. Mr. Beall, the remains were interred with Odd Fellows' and afterwards with Masonic honors.

The remains of the late Benjamin H. Lambert, esq., were interred this afternoon in the cemetery of the M. E. Church, a large number of the relatives and friends of the deceased. among the latter the members of the Commercial Exchange, being in attendance. Rev. Dr. Busey performed the funeral ceremonies.

POLICE REPORT. - The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday's issue of the Gazette: Lizzie Stewart, for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged; George Addison, a colored boy, for stealing specifies before.

$5 from a colored man from Washington named Fleming Michler, was sent to jail to work on the chain gang for thirty days; Sarah Bell, col ored, for disorderly conduct, was sent to the work house for sixty days; W. A Scott, colored, for disorderly conduct, was fined and disto act for the entire State, and I think it charged; John Green alias Carter Green, for disorderly conduct in a colored church, was fined and discharged; Lucy Williams, colored, our upon the mountain and told him to fall for stealing a watch, and a lame stranger, for and worship him for benefits to come, it disorderly conduct on the street, were locked up to await an examination.

> Hooff's Run. - Since the flood of last sum mer, when the bridge across Hooff's Run, at the head of King street, was washed away, that stream has been almost impassable during, and for some time after the fall of even any ordinary amount of rain. The inconvenience, of course, has been very considerable, and as it was likely to increase rather than diminish, as the rainy season is approaching, and as there seemed no probability of a new bridge being built by anybody else, some of the city butchers, whose slaughter houses are on that run, yesterday laid a foot bridge across it, which is infinitely preferable to no bridge at all.

PRINTING THE CORPORATION CODE. -The committee on the codification of the city laws met last night, at the Auditor's office, and opened the bids for printing the code of the city as recently revised. Bids were read as follows: - John Murphy & Co., Baltimore, $2 50 per page, with binding extra. A. S. Abell & Co., Baltimore, $2.25 per octavo page, with binding extra. T. O. Neal, Washington, $1.48 per made page, with binding extra. Pearson & Bro., Washington, a general bid per m. for composition, &c. C. H. House, Alexandria, the entire work completed and delivered, $500. The bid of Mr. House was accepted.
